Fairview Park, OH America in Bloom Awards Announced

(COLUMBUS, OH): Top honors for the prestigious 2015 America in Bloom national awards program were announced at the annual awards held in Holland, Michigan on September 26.

All participants were evaluated on six criteria: overall impression, environmental awareness, heritage preservation, urban forestry, landscape, and floral displays. Additionally they were judged on their community involvement across municipal, residential, and commercial sectors. America in Bloom is the only national awards program that sends specially trained judges to personally visit participants. In addition, each participant receives a detailed written evaluation that can be used as a guide to future improvements.

Fairview Park received a three bloom rating out of a possible five.

In addition, they received a special mention for their landscaped areas.

Evelyn Alemanni and Stephen Pategas, AIB judges, visited communities of similar populations and spent two days touring each town, meeting municipal officials, residents, and volunteers. Other competitors in the 16,000-20,000 population category were Fairhope, AL; Madisonville, KY; and Ottawa, IL.

Judges said, "Fairview Park has beautiful natural areas in Bain Park. Many of the neighborhoods are defined by their attractive landscapes and large trees. Our commendations to the Garden Club, Green Team and other volunteers for their work to improve landscapes all over the city."

America in Bloom executive director, Laura Kunkle, said, "America in Bloom is helping towns and cities of all sizes achieve their potential. Every year our participants raise the bar, and the accomplishments and progress shown by this year's group is again remarkable. These are, without a doubt, some of the best places to live in America."
