Greater Racine, WI America in Bloom Awards Results Announced

(COLUMBUS, OH): Top honors for the prestigious 2014 America in Bloom national awards program were announced at the annual awards held in Philadelphia, PA on October 4.

America in Bloom executive director, Laura Kunkle, said, “America in Bloom is helping participants of all types achieve their potential. Every year our participants raise the bar, and the accomplishments and progress shown by this year's towns and cities is again remarkable.”

All participants were evaluated on six criteria: overall impression, environmental awareness, heritage preservation, urban forestry, landscape, and floral displays. Additionally they were judged on their community involvement across municipal, residential, and commercial sectors. America in Bloom is the only national awards program that sends specially trained judges to personally visit participants and provide a detailed written evaluation that can be used as a guide to future improvements.

Evelyn Alemanni and Stephen Pategas, two specially trained AIB judges, visited towns of similar populations and spent two days touring each town, meeting municipal officials, residents, and volunteers. Other competitors in the over 50,000 population category were Rockford, IL; Lexington, KY; and Fayetteville, AR.

Greater Racine received a four bloom rating and a special mention for their efforts in heritage preservation.

The judges said, “Your judges this year were impressed with the commitment of the Racine in Bloom team and all that you have accomplished. We were told that Greater Racine in Bloom is becoming the “go to” organization for beautification projects.”
